

FUNERAL NOTE

It is with great sadness and grief that I report one of our central counterparts is no longer with us, the Chicago Cubs season has passed. Before the fat lady could even begin to sing the National Anthem, the Cubs mascot, Clark, confirmed he was 100% positive the Cubs had 0% chance of winning. In preparation for the season, the Cubs decided to bring in Charlie Sheen to manage and bring a “winning” spirit to the club.

He resigned a couple hours after signing his contract.

We have lost one of the fiercest non-competitors of all time, and are demoralized for this gradual and painful death. They die leaving behind a legacy of loss, which only makes this tragedy more tragic.

Please join us
April 7th, 2014, at 3:15 pm
to commemorate the death of a true losing legend,
and celebrate the birth of a new season.

Sorry we are not sorry,
Moe Zeliak
